Jones Lang LaSalle (JLL) is a world leader in real estate advisory. JLL was formed in 1999 by a merger of the British firm Jones Lang Wootton, founded in the 18th century in the City of London, and American investment management firm LaSalle Partners, founded in 1968. JLL opened an office in 1992 in the Czech Republic, being one of the first major global advisory firms to do so.

JLL buys, builds, occupies and invests in a variety of assets including industrial, commercial, retail, residential and hotel real estate. From tech start-ups to global firms, JLL's clients span industries including banking, energy, healthcare, law, life sciences, manufacturing and technology. They have over 70 employees based in the Czech Republic.
